Introduction

A tasty bowl of soup fills you up, reduces cravings, keeps you energized for hours, and is one of the best diet-friendly meals. Preparing your own soup at home is even better because you can choose what ingredients you put in and that way control sodium and calorie intake.

Mediterranean way of cooking is healthy home cooking. You can always improvise, invent, vary recipes, and substitute one ingredient for another. What you need to prepare Mediterranean soups are vegetables, legumes and spices that you usually have in your kitchen along with some lean meat or fish. Other ingredients are easily found in every vegetable market.

In the Mediterranean countries, soup preparation always starts with aromatic vegetables such as garlic, onions, carrots and celery gently sautéed in olive oil. Vegetable broth or water is then added, followed by herbs and spices, and your choice of grains, beans, pasta, vegetables, or some lean meat or fish. The ingredients which need the shortest cooking time are added last.

My family and I adore soup and prepare one every day. These are our favorite recipes, and I hope you will enjoy them as much as we do!

Bean, Chicken and Sausage Soup

---

Serves 6-7

Ingredients:

12 oz Italian sausage

3 bacon strips, diced

2 cups chicken, cooked and cut in small pieces

1 cup kidney beans, rinsed and drained

1 big onion, chopped

2 garlic cloves, crushed

4 cups water

1 cup canned tomatoes, diced, undrained

1 bay leaf

1 tsp dried thyme

1 tsp savory

½ tsp dried basil

salt and pepper, to taste

Cook the sausage, onion and bacon over medium heat until sausage is no longer pink. Drain off the fat. Add the garlic and cook for a minute. Add the water, tomatoes and seasonings and bring to a boil. Cover, reduce heat and simmer for 30 minutes. Add the chicken and beans. Simmer for 5 minutes. Serve warm.

Bulgarian Chicken Soup

Serves 7-8

Ingredients:

1 whole chicken, cut into sections

1 large onion, whole

1 large onion, chopped

3 garlic cloves, chopped

2 carrots, chopped

1 red pepper

1 tsp thyme

2 bay leaves

2 tbsp olive oil

1 tsp salt

black pepper to taste

1 tbsp fresh oregano, chopped

1 tsp summer savory

Place the chicken, bay leaves, salt, whole onion and whole red pepper into a pot with 5 cups of cold water. Bring the pot to boil, reduce heat and simmer for 1 hour, scooping out any solid foam that settles at the top. When ready, strain the broth and reserve. Remove the meat from the chicken and cut into large chunks. Discard the bay leaves, the onion and the pepper. Place the pot back on the stove, sauté the other onion, garlic, carrots and thyme for about 5 minutes. Pour in the broth and season with salt and pepper. Simmer for about 20 minutes or until the vegetables are tender. Add in the chicken pieces, the savory and the oregano. Simmer for 10 more minutes and serve warm.

Greek Lemon Chicken Soup

---

Serves 4-5

Ingredients:

1 lb uncooked boneless, skinless chicken breast, diced

1 onion, finely diced

2 large raw eggs

3 tbsp olive oil

1/2 cup fresh lemon juice

1 tsp salt

1 tsp ground pepper

In a medium pot, heat the olive oil and sauté the onions until they are soft and translucent. Add the chicken broth and water, along with the washed rice and bring everything to boil, then reduce heat. When the rice is almost done, add the diced chicken breast to the pot. Let it cook for another 5 minutes or until the chicken is cooked through.

In a small bowl, beat the eggs and lemon juice together. Pour two cups of broth slowly into the egg mixture, whisking constantly. When all the broth is incorporated, add this mixture into the pot of chicken soup and stir well to blend. Do not boil any more. Season with salt and pepper and garnish with parsley. Serve hot.
